

Heather Guthrie
Student Research Assistant

Heather is a native of Littlefield, Texas and is working on her undergraduate degree in Government at Angelo State University (ASU). She is a member of the Honor Student Association and the president of the Young Democrats @ ASU. Heather will graduate in May 2009 and intends to work on a master's degree in Public Administration at ASU. Heather is interviewing local community leaders about the up-coming census and compiling the information she obtains to gain a clear idea of how the census is perceived to affect the community.
