

Angelo State University
 Department of Kinesiology
 Degree Plan
 Master of Science in Kinesiology
 36-hour, non-thesis
 Minimum 27 hours of Kinesiology

Name: _____ CID: _____

Address: _____ Local Phone: _____

_____ ASU Email: _____

Semester of Admission: _____ Projected Semester of Graduation: _____

Required Kinesiology Courses	Other 6000 level Kinesiology Courses
KIN 6391 Research Methods & Techniques	KIN 6304 Sport Psychology
KIN 6351 Tests and Measurements	KIN 6305 Biomechanics
KIN 6392 Professional Communication	KIN 6310 Seminar In Sport Sociology
KIN 6373 Practicum	KIN 6322 Administering Special Events and Activities
KIN 6394 Applied Research	KIN 6324 Programming for Special Populations
	KIN 6331 Legal and Ethical Aspects
	KIN 6333 Financial and Facilities Management
	KIN 6335 Leadership Applications
	KIN 6381 Special Topics
	KIN 6393 Research

*5000 level Kinesiology Courses (Maximum of 6 Hours)	Transfer Hours (Maximum of 9 Hours)
KIN 5333 Health Promotion: Workplace
KIN 5380 Sport & Exercise Nutrition
KIN 5390 Principles of Strength & Conditioning

Supporting Electives (Maximum of 9 Hours)	Leveling Work

*Must receive permission from the graduate advisor, the graduate dean, and complete Graduate Course Approval Form prior to registering for the course. In addition, courses cannot be taken if a similar course was taken at the undergraduate level.

The supporting electives must be appropriate for the individual student's degree program and career goals, and the student must receive written approval from the departmental graduate advisor prior to course enrollment. Transfer courses may qualify as supporting electives if they are appropriate for the student's degree program and career goals, and if approval is given by the departmental graduate advisor.

 Kinesiology Graduate Coordinator Date

 Graduate Student Date

 Graduate Dean Date